

Canada Graduate Research Scholarship - Doctoral Program (CGRS D)

Indigenous Attestation Form

First Nation, Inuk (Inuit), or Métis (Indigenous)* applicants to the Canada Graduate Research Scholarship – Doctoral program whose nations or communities are located in Canada are eligible to be considered for designated funding to support Indigenous researchers. Indigenous applicants are also eligible to have their application considered for submission beyond their institution's quota.

If you are Indigenous and would like to be considered for either of these options, complete and upload this form within your application in ResearchNet.

Applicant Information

First Name

Middle Name(s)

Last Name

Select all options that apply

☐

1. I am an Indigenous person* (First Nation, Inuk (Inuit), or Métis) and would like to be considered for designated funding to support Indigenous researchers. I understand that, if I am awarded this funding, I may be identified publicly as an Indigenous person. I also understand that if I am selected for this funding, I may be required to provide documentation to support affirmation or Indigenous citizenship or membership before receiving my award/supplement. Furthermore, I acknowledge that providing false, fraudulent or misleading information about citizenship or membership could constitute misrepresentation under the Tri-Agency Framework: Responsible Conduct of Research.

☐

2. I am an Indigenous person* (First Nation, Inuk (Inuit), or Métis) and would like to have my application considered for submission beyond my institution's quota.

For Research Administrators and/or eApproval Users: If box 2 is selected above, this application will not be considered as part of the institutional quotas for the current year. For more details consult the Information and instructions for Research Administrators for managing the Canada Graduate Research Scholarship – Doctoral \(CGRS D\) program.

* The three agencies recognize the diversity of Indigenous Peoples, including global Indigenous Peoples. For the purposes of this form, however, "Indigenous people", "Indigenous person", or "Indigenous applicants" refers to First Nations, Inuk (Inuit) or Métis Peoples whose nations or communities are located in Canada.